ROBINSON AFFIRMED

The Supreme Court Passes on Appeal.

HUMPHREYS HAS JURY TRIAL

Judge Robinson Also Gives Two Decisions—Judge Gear Starts in to Work.

The Supreme Court handed down two decisions yesterday, one on an agreed submission of facts, and the other an affirmation of the first ruling made by Judge Robinson.

The first decision is in the case of T. R. Moesman vs. the trustees of the Bishop Museum, David Kawananakoa and Jonah Kalaniano'le, in which the title to the Ahupua'a of Waipio on Hawaii is involved. The case, however, governs numerous others now pending in the courts. The court decided that "In a statutory action to quiet title, the judgment may, in a proper case, include an award of possession and be enforced by a writ of possession." This is a victory for plaintiffs, as defendants contended in the submission that the statute relating to actions to quiet title permits an adjudication only of the title and not of possession. The Supreme Court further answers in the negative the question also submitted: "May possession be obtained, if at all, only by means of an action of ejectment?" Justice Galbraith writes a dissenting opinion.

JUDGE ROBINSON AFFIRMED.

In the case of J. Alfred Magoon as trustee vs. C. Lai Young, Judge Robinson is affirmed in throwing out the case on demurrer. The suit was one involving land, in which through an error the wrong piece of property was conveyed. The demurrer cited the non-joinder of the parties, and Judge Robinson held the point to be well taken.

The Supreme Court holds the bill to have been defective and it is dismissed though without prejudice. For the purpose of making this modification the case is remanded to the Circuit Judge.

IN CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Humphreys in the afternoon began the hearing of the case of A. Kitt vs. Lee Long, before a jury. This is an action for $1000 damages for alleged assault upon the plaintiff by defendant, who is said also to have incited other Chinese to beat and bruise him. The jury was secured and the trial will probably be concluded today.

DECISION AGAINST BOYD.

In the case of Henry Smith vs. Mary A. S. Rose and S. B. Dole as governor Judge Robinson ruled yesterday against Supt. Boyd, who is the real defendant. Plaintiff alleged that Boyd in taking land for a street and giving other land in exchange, gave Mrs. Rose the best of the deal, greatly to the damage of Smith. Judge Robinson, in dismissing the complaint, said that Boyd is given no judicial powers to determine the value of land, and he holds that the abandoned highway must be offered to all of abutting property owners before it is sold, and that the exclusion of any abutting owner is a fraud upon him, and "any conveyance made pursuant to such fraudulent offer must be set aside."

COURT NOTES.

Judge Humphreys yesterday dismissed the appeal of Y. Anin vs. A. M. Brown as high sheriff, at plaintiff's costs. The suit was for over $300 and the District Court had no jurisdiction. In the case of Yee Wo vs. Lam Yip the non-suit previously granted was vacated and plaintiff is given leave to amend the complaint.

J. U. Unzueta has asked to be appointed administrator of the estate of Lolita Papanui. The estate is valued at $1400. W. E. Rowell has been appointed administrator of the estate of Malvina J. Rowell, which is valued at $8800. Judge Gear has named Emmett May, F. H. Loucks and J. W. Cathcart as appraisers.

Judge Robinson yesterday denied the motion of defendant for a new trial in the case of Henry Smith vs. Hamakua Mill Co. The defendants set up the fact that two jury trials had been on the same day, but the court holds such objection to be purely jurisdictional, and which may be raised in the Appellate Court as well as trial court.

Judge Gear yesterday overruled the demurrer in the case of E. C. Rowe vs. Stanley Stephenson.

An amended bill of complaint has been filed in the case of Chas. B. Wilson vs. Liliuokalani Dominis, a bill to declare a trust and compel conveyance of real estate.

P. D. Kelley Jr. has been appointed administrator of the estate of Anton de Lessa.

Judge Humphreys has assigned the hearing of the case of W. F. C. Hasson vs. W. H. Pain et al. to Judge Gear.

General denial has been filed in the case of Lewers & Cooke vs. J. W. Redhouse.

A demurrer in the case of Fanny Strauch vs. P. Pauke was submitted to Judge Robinson yesterday.

F. W. McChesney has petitioned for discharge as assignee of the bankrupt estate of Manuel J. Silva of Lihue, Kauai. He was appointed by Judge Stanley in 1899, and reports that he has a balance remaining of $981.15, which he asks to distribute pro rata to the creditors.

Dysentery causes the death of more people than smallpox and yellow fever combined. In an army it is dreaded more than a battle. It requires prompt and effective treatment. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery in the United States with perfect success, and has cured the most malignant cases both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions. Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it today. It may save a life. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.
